SENIORS GIVE BANQUET

Class Pays Tribute to Norman Plate, Grid Star.

The Senior Class gave a banquet last Tuesday evening, February 21, in honor of Norman Plate, who left for the west a few days ago. Because of Norman's unusual personality and the fine friendship he gave to everyone, the class, as well as the whole school, felt very sorry to think of his leaving, and so in order to prove its feeling, gave him a surprise.

The dinner committee was made up of Florence Marmorstein, Albert Weed and Eugene Warner. This trio sent invitations to the entire class and to the football and basketball teams. Eugene Warner made very unique menu cards for the guests and a few of the girls decorated the tables in the cafeteria.

Miss Rowe and Miss Dimmick, however, did most of the work in preparing the dinner. Those who had a share in preparing the meal certainly will agree that the banquet would have been a poor success without the help of these two ladies.

Eugene Warner acted as chairman for the evening. He made very clever remarks in announcing the speakers. Miss Rowe and Mr. Patin both told Norman how much his classmates thought of him and how sorry they were to see him go. At last the guest of honor stood up. He addressed his classmates as "fellow-citizens" and then proceeded to tell them how he hated to leave Shaker High. He regretted very much that he could not stay in our community and remain close friends with all the students of our school.

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Varsity Defeats Wellsville 13-8 But Loses to Barberton 16-6.

After defeating Wellsville, Ohio, 13-8 on Friday afternoon, the varsity fell before Barberton, 16-6, the same evening.

In the first game, Shaker scored first when Prehn put a long shot through the ring following three minutes of play. As he added three more in this chapter and one foul shot, the half ended 8-6 in Shaker's favor.

FRENCH PLAY GIVEN

Club Entertains School

On February 21st, 1922, the French club gave a very interesting comedy. Fine acting ability was displayed and the costumes were quite appropriate. The program was as follows:

1. Discours ..... Thomas Copeland
2. Les Morts, de Victor Hugo... ..... Maxton Davies
3. Apres la Bataille, de V. Hugo ..... Howard Hirsch
4. La Lettre Chargee: comedie en un acte de Labiche

Personnages: Hortense, la femme; Helen McAllister; Hector de Courvalin, son cousin, Thomas Copeland; Frandine, la femme de chambre, Miriam Stage; Fougasson, l'Americain, Lawrence Pratt.

Hector de Courvalin, a young lawyer, is wooing his widowed cousin, Hortense. Her objection to him is his constant use of adverbs. During his visit, she received two letters from an eccentric American Peters Fougasson, asking her hand in marriage. When she receives the third, she sends an answer by registered letter to his hotel. She writes "You annoy me!"—that is all. Fougasson appears and tells her he has seen her portrait, and that her resemblance to his first wife, Betsy, is so striking, he wants to marry her. She and her maid think he is crazy. When she refuses him he starts to hang himself with a piece of cord, "that is always with him." Hector, who has been out seeking information about Fougasson, returns with a telegram for him. Betsy is not dead, so he apologizes to Hortense. Hortense decides she can grow accustomed to Hector's adverbs and promises to marry him.)

GIRLS TAKE TWO GAMES

Lakewood and Wilcox Commercial Beaten; Heights Next.

The girls' team attained its second victory over the girls of the Lakewood Congregational church. Margaret Green played side center and worked well with Mildred. The team is encouraged by these last victories and hopes their days of defeat are over. Miss Tuthill refereed the first half and Miss Donnelson the second. After the game the teams were served hot chocolate and crackers. The line-up was as follows:

Shaker Girls—17		Lakewood—4
McAllister	F	Emmerson
Kalal	F	Linkert
Knadler	G	Knapp
Green	S. C.	Strong
Keplinger	G	White
Davies	G	Johns

On Tuesday afternoon another victory was credited to the Shaker girls. The Wilcox Commercial girls were the victims. It was an interesting game as one of our alumni, Katherine Burger, played with the opposition. Gertrude Glidden was the star for the visiting team. Shaker used the same line-up as in the Lakewood game. Miss Tuthill refereed the game. The score was 25 to 13.

An exciting game will be played by the girls against Cleveland Heights March 3, at Cleveland Heights. The team wants to see everyone there.

WEST PARK CLEARED

Shaker Varsity Was the Pick on the Occasion.

The varsity wiped things up with the heavy West Park basket squad February 17th on the home court. Those who missed the game, missed a treat. After the first few minutes Mush Prehn got busy and made 9 points. Corlett added 2 by a pretty shot from center after three or four other trys had bounced out after apparently having been perfectly thrown.

With a fair lead, Shaker settled down. The half ended with the visitors trailing 11-3.

The second half was a repetition of the first, except that Corlett and Mills did the Shaker tossing, because Mills was covered completely by the opposing center who hounded his tracks and received a personal foul and a spill as a reward.

The way Shaker coped with a larger team was great. Time and again Corky would tear into a big
